

11th Annual Taste of Design Fundraiser to benefit DASH

Featuring the “GONNA BE FAMOUS” student art show & mural

Who

Design & Architecture Senior High’s Annual Fundraiser by the PTSA.

What

Now in its 11th year, the Taste of Design Fundraiser has evolved into a “Who’s-Who” event for the arts, educational and business communities in the heart of the Miami Design District.

The event will feature the reveal of an all-student mural (over 450 students) that spans the width of the school’s courtyard.

In keeping with past events, the 2019 fundraiser will feature Miami’s hottest chefs, including James Beard finalist Brad Kilgore. A distinguished alumnus will be honored, along with dignitaries and business leaders who have supported DASH tirelessly. Additionally, a number of special items will be offered during the annual live auction, including a rare, signed guitar by members of The Rolling Stones band.

Where

This year’s event will be held simultaneously at the school’s courtyard, aka “THE DASH YARD” (4001 NE 2nd Ave) and next door at The Atrium Event Space (4141 NE 2nd Ave).

When

Saturday, March 16, 2019, 6:30pm – 9:30pm

Why

Ranked by U.S. News & World Report among the top high schools in Florida and the U.S. for the last decade, DASH offers a design-driven curriculum taught by industry professionals. Its location in the heart of the Miami Design District provides students with a unique opportunity to see design in action. The annual Taste of Design serves as an important fundraiser to support critical programs, including a unique scholarship that sends 40 students to important college prep programs around the country, including Parsons and the School for Visual Arts in New York.
